

Special Pre-conference Workshop!

Indigenous Christian Movements in China

Wednesday, October 19, 2011, 8:30am-5:00pm

Legacy Church of Christ

Participants in this workshop will explore several aspects of indigenous Christian movements in China. Key aspects to be investigated include the history of past movements, missionary practices which either helped or hindered such movements, and application to current mission efforts. The workshop will be led by China Vision, an ad hoc collaboration seeking to enhance our outreach to China. There is a $15 registration fee for this workshop, separate from the GMC registration fee. Participation will be limited based on space available. For further information including how to register, email indigenousChinese@gmail.com.